The Directory of World Cinema aims to play a part in moving intelligent, scholarly criticism beyond the academy by building a forum for the study of film that relies on a disciplined theoretical base. Each volume of the Directory takes the form of a collection of reviews, longer essays and research resources, accompanied by film stills highlighting significant films and players.

The project consists of three components:

- This pre-print web-based database, which facilitates content collection and provides free access to the content. You can use the search facility to explore the database or use the short cuts below to read film reviews featured in the volumes published so far:

Japan

American Independent

Australia & New Zealand

Russia

American Hollywood

Italy

Germany

East Europe

Spain

Iran

China

Britain

- A series of printed volumes for each world region, of about 300 pages per volume. For each region, a new volume with original content will be published every two years. You can order these books at £15.95/$25 from Intellect's web site or your normal retailer. To see details of the print edition and how to order a copy please see below:

Japan

American Independent

Australia & New Zealand

Russia

American Hollywood

Italy

Germany

East Europe

Spain

Iran

China

Japan 2

Britain (new)

- E-book versions of the published material are also available to libraries and individuals. To see details of retailers who stock the e-books for libraries please visit Intellect's web site . Individuals can purchase the e-books by using the links below:

Ebooks.com

Amazon Kindle

Kobo

Google Play

Nook

Apple iBooks